IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

IN THE MATTER OF SUSPENDING	)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
ACCESS TO THE CLERK OF THE	)	NO. 2001- 029
COURT PUBLIC RECORDS	)
_____	)

The Court having given full consideration to the magnitude of the work involved and impact resulting from the upcoming relocation of the Clerk of the Court's Public Records Departments to a new Customer Service Center located at 601 W. Jackson Street, Phoenix, Arizona,

IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk of the Superior Court, Maricopa County, is authorized to suspend access to all court records currently housed at 201 W. Jefferson Street, 125 W. Washington Street, 3345 W. Durango Street and 501 S. Third Avenue, Phoenix Arizona, from May 31, 2001 through June 8, 2001. (NOTE: The majority of the court records involved relate to Adult Court processes; however, the Juvenile Court records housed at 3345 W. Durango Street will also be impacted.)

In support and furtherance of the administrative and organizational tasks inherent in the Clerk of the Court's relocation,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED implementing the following procedures:

1. Superior Court judicial officers, Superior Court administrative offices, Clerk of Court departments, and all Maricopa County court departments will return all court files, not actively in use, to the custody of the Clerk of Superior Court by May 25, 2001. All files not returned to the Clerk by May 25th shall remain with the division or department where they are. The Clerk's Office shall again accept division/department file returns beginning on June 11, 2001.

2. Superior Court judicial officers, Superior Court administrative offices, Clerk of Court departments, and all Maricopa County court departments will forward the case numbers of all court files that they will require during the suspended operation to the Clerk's Office File Room by May 25, 2001. These files shall be provided to the requesting customers prior to commencement of the Clerk's move.

DATED this 20th day of April, 2001.
